Honouring Anzacs
Students in years 3-6 have started looking at an online resource called Honouring Anzacs. www.honouringanzacs.net.au/

On this site they have each adopted an Anzac soldier as part of their learning activities. The students are able to view the soldier’s war records and learn more about why we observe and Anzac Day.

Cross Country Urana
This will be held on Wednesday 22 April, which is the 2nd day of school for all students K-6 next term.

Students will need to wear sports uniform (and bring a jumper in case the weather is cooler). They will need to bring a drink bottle and their lunch (or money to purchase lunch). Parent assistance will be needed with transport to get our 16 students to Urana. Please return the attached permission note promptly so that we know we have enough transport.

Friday Cooking
Last week Jane Robb cooked quiche and salad with Ryan, Imogen, Adelaide and Martika. For dessert they made strawberry sponge finger slice.

Bec Tomlinson will be cooking lunch with the cooking group this week. Cost $2.

Anzac Day
This year, Anzac Day falls on a Saturday. The school will be participating in the Anzac Day March in Corowa.

Roster for the P & C BBQ at Safeway on Thurs 2 April:
10-12 Jodie & Catherine
12-2 Bec & Colin
A big thank you to these parents for donating their time to raise money for our school.

HOW2Learn
I will be attending HOW2Learn training in Wagga next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Filliponi will be teaching the students with Mrs Sharp on Monday and Wednesday. Ms Scott will be teaching on Tuesday with Mrs Sharp. I will be sharing about HOW2Learn with the students, parents and staff next term.

Mrs Strachan

Science Experiments
These are the crystals that we have grown this term. We have been learning about evaporation.

This will be the last newsletter for Term 1.

We hope that everyone has a safe and happy holiday.
STUDENT OF THE WEEK

is Jade Lewis for trying to complete her work independently and enthusiastically.

An interview with Jade:

Favourite colour: blue
Favourite sport: tennis
Favourite food: zucchini slice

Another thing you should know about me: I like jazz dancing and ballet.

Home Reading

25 nights of home reading: Congratulations to Eric!

Assembly Awards

School Leaders'- Sommers- playing safely during cubbies.
Environment: Alyssha- putting her rubbish in the bin.
Sports: Lachie- terrific effort running laps practising for Cross Country.
Library: Sommers- reading stories to younger students.
Merit: Tim- always striving to do his best in maths.
Tegan- learning her spelling words and getting 100% in her weekly test.
Matilda- capably organising her science project script and experiments.

Mathletics Awards

Harley was very excited to receive his first Mathletics award last Friday. He is pictured with Tegan who also got an award this week.

ART REQUEST

Examples of small objects to bring.

Over the holidays might be a great chance to find collect objects like broken toys, buttons, pegs, lids and bits and pieces. Don’t throw them out. Bring them in for the next Art Project.
